I usually cannot read for more than two hours at a time, until I picked up your book. I could not put it down. The characters are very well drawn. Your descriptions of their emotions were insightful and perceptive. Very, very well done. I believe you have a winner. Lenore C. Sherrill, Attorney at Law, MA

Even though I'm of a different culture, I connected to your writing on an emotional level. I shared your book with a friend of mine and she stayed up until 3 A.M. every night until she finished it! This is one of the most powerful books I have ever read. The characters are rich and unforgettable. I will remember them for ages. I was NOT able to put this book down. Trust me. You are the next Grisham or Clancy. Lisa Shasteen, President of Shasteen-Sizemore Co., FL

Your book is a definite bestseller. I'm an ardent reader. I would put this one at the top of the list of books I've thoroughly enjoyed reading. It was fast pace, unpredictable, insightful and fresh. Kelly Ranford, Electrician, OH

The book was more than I expected out of a first novel. I laughed. I cried. I found myself often holding my breath until I found out what happened next. The book was entertaining, but also moving. It made me think about what's really important in life. The book inspires one to overcome his or her own challenges. Greta Rice, Sales and Marketing Trainer, CA

It was a great read!!! I could not put the book down. Emma Powell, Decatur, GA

I was reading your novel and found myself pulled into a world where choices were a matter of life and death and decisions were clearly tied to epic outcomes. This book is a thriller in every sense of the word. I cared about the characters. I cared about their choices. The results of those choices mattered to me. The book is like nothing I've ever read. Ron Buchanan, Lecturer/Writer and Fitness Consultant, OH

I read the book in two days! "And the Walls Came Tumbling Down: The Secret Life of Senator Jack" is rich with twists and turns that kept me wondering how the story would unfold. I highly recommend the book to those that like suspense, politics and most of all, second chances. I could not put it down! Marta Guida, Teacher, MD (living in Germany)
